The vote stood 54 for submission and 40 against.

During the debate on this measure in the House trouble arose between Representative W. B. Harvey, of Dixon, Webster county, and Representative J. D. Pumphrey, of Flemingsburg.

Speaking in support of the measure Representative Harvey resented a statement that a Democratic member who voted for the bill was a bolter. He referred to the Democratic convention at Louisville last year as not representing the real sentiment of the party. He criticied Governor Stanley harshly and accused him of deceiving the drys in certain localities as to his attitude on the state-wide question.

When Representative Pumphrey gained the floor his speech precipitated trouble. He declared that he in-readed to vote for state-wide even though he knew it to be contrary to the platform, because he had promised his constituents to support it, but, he declared he could not remain silent when the Governor was being

He made charges that a chambermaid at a hotel in Frankfort has accused Representative Harvey of approaching her in his room with outstretched hands several weeks ago.

The accusation was investigated thoroughly by Police Judge W. C. Henrdon and Policeman R. L. Quire at the time said that the statements made by the woman were not sufficent to issue a warrant.

Harvey branded the statements of Pumphrey as a black falsehood deliberately and maliciously planned by a man against his enemy. He told that it was a frameup by those opposed to state-wide prohibition.

The state-wide prohibition amendment is dead for the present session of the legislature, having been defeated by the Senate.

The Court suggested that the General Assembly alone has power to appropriate public money to that purpose Gilbert says that he will appeal to the legislature for help and a bill to that effect will be thrashed out.

Two bills designed to enforce the Sunday closing law in Kenton and Campbell Counties passed the House The solons are beginning to take without serious opposition after much trouble was experienced in getting them placed on the calender and through the necessary readings before a vote was taken.

The bills were introduced by Representative Greene, of Carrollton. The representatives from Kenton and Campbell Counties fought valiantly to

The first measure is known as the 'common nuisance injunction act." It provides any place where liquor is sold in violation of law shall be considered a common nuisance and provides for the abatement of such nuicances by injunction.

Upon the affidavits of three credit able citizens of any community that such a nuisance exists, the Attorney General of Kentucky is required to institute an action to enjoin the nui sance perpetually.

The second bill passed is a "for feiture act." This measure provides any saloon keeper who violates the law shall forfeit his license, and that no such saloon keeper shall ever be granted another license

The most drastic feature of the bill is the section which gives jurisdiction in all cases under the act to the Frank lin Circuit Court upon the affidavit of two creditable witnesses that there has been a violation of the law. Either side may appeal to the Appellate Court.

The State Excise Commission bill, which has been proposed by the Goversor as a substitute for the measures was not introduced.

Cream of tartar, derived from grapes, is used in Royal Baking Powder because it is the best and most healthful ingredient known for the purpose.

Phosphate and alum, which are derived from mineral sources, are used in some baking powders, instead of cream of tartar, because they are cheaper.

If you have been induced to use baking powders made from alum or phosphate, use Royal Baking Powder instead. You will be pleased with the results and the difference in the quality of the food.

enables the advocate to sway judge and jury with his logic. It is preparedness that enables the manufacturer to out-distance his competitors. It is preparedness that has made the General Roofing Manufacturing Company

The Big Gun of the Roofing Business

The General's preparedness consists of the three largest and best equipped roofing and building paper mills in the world.

Each is a complete producing unit, manufacturing the full line of the General's products. Each is advantageously located in the territory it serves, has cheap fuel and favorable transportation facilities.

The General buys raw materials in enormous quantities and far ahead. This means favorable buying and the pick of the market.

With manufacturing so perfected and cheapened, the highest quality is produced at the lowest cost.

This preparedness enables the General to make one-third of all the rolls of roofing used. All over the civilized world you will find

Certain-teed

Roofing

The quality of roofing cannot be determined by looking at it, nor by twisting or tearing. Its durability can not be tested except in actual use over a period of years.

Contrary to popular belief roofing does not wear out—it dries out. CERTAINTEED Roofing is especially made to defeat this process of drying out; as it is thoroughly saturated with our properly blended soft asphalts and coated with a blend of harder asphalts, which keeps the soft saturation—the life of the roofing—from drying out. This produces a roofing pliable, yet durable, and impervious to the elements. CERTAIN-TEED products are made under the supervision of our board of grad-uate chemists, and are the result of long experience in mining, refining, and blending CERTAIN-TEED Roofing is guaranteed to hold "its place in the sun" for 5,10, or 15 years according to whether it is 1, 2, or 3 ply, respectively. Behind this guarantee stands the responsibility of the world's largest Roofing and Building Paper Mills. Past experience has proved that our guarantee is conservative, and that the roofing will outlast the period of the guarantee. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED, and a proper method of laying it, for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs, from the largest skycraper to the smallest structure.

CERTAIN-TEED Roofing is sold by responsible dealers all over the world at reasonable prices.
